
 Who Am I

* Xj Digger, Sui Juris

- as a living, breathing Christian Man, with a soul
- who lives on and owns property in the chartered town of Lincoln, Maine
- I am one of the people of this free and independent State of Maine(original)

* I'm not a United States Citizen

- * I am a regular Man, Not any kind of fiction or corporate entity, I live and breath and have a Soul which I dedicate to my God whom is the same God of Jesus Christ.
- * I am not a person, I am a man who is not any kind of fiction, corporation, body politic or any other scheme that can be defined.
 - I am a Christian and my God considers being a person as being in sin as in James 2:9 (*) “But if ye regard the persons, ye commit sin, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressors”
- * I have not contracted away my natural inherent and unalienable rights to any government or corporation.
- * I hereby give notice that I do not hold any known Contracts that I knowingly gave up my free and independent rights as a man under the protections of the American Constitutions.

* I do not consent to any venue or jurisdiction that does not include the full rights and benefits protected by the Original Constitution of Maine with all of the properly constitutional amendments and the original Constitution for the united States of America and all of the properly constitutional amendments.

* I do not consent to any Corporate administration that does not fully comply with the constitutional laws of the land.

 Addressing the Judge

 I'm Neither Guilty nor not Guilty

- * The law In the United States of America,
 - People are innocent until proven guilty in a common law court

* Who is the injured party making a claim

- that I have violated their rights, trespassed upon their property or injured them.
- * no claim, verified complaint
- * Verifiable complaint
- * no warrant

 Address the Judge

* I'm here for a special appearance to address some summonses and to determine whether:
State of Maine and this court has the Jurisdiction to bring a claim against me.

* I require a declaratory judgement on which State of Maine is being represented here
- The Constitutional State ordained by We the People
- The Corporate State of Maine which is a territory of the United States.

* I require a Declaratory Judgement to describe what Jurisdiction this court has

* I Require a Declaratory Judgement of the definition on who this court Recognizes me as:
- A man who is one of the People of Maine
- Or me as some corporate entity defined by a contract or something else.

 Oath and Affirmation

* You and the prosecutor have taken oaths of office to support and uphold the Constitution of the united States of America and that of this state.

- Is that correct?

* Pursuant to your oaths, you are required to abide by those oaths, in the performance of your official duties, especially those before this Honorable Court.
- Is that correct?

* I appear before this Honorable Court, by special appearance, as a living, breathing natural-born American Christian Man, with and claiming, all my natural inherent and unalienable rights to live free and independent ordained by the people protected by the federal and state Constitutions.,

- Is there any objection to what I just stated?

* You Need to know who I am.

* I need to know who you are — as my public servant.

* All the servants of the people are bound by the constitution to swear an oath to god and We the People
- So that We the People know that you will defend and benefit our enumerated rights in the constitutional contract for your service to us.

* If you violate that oath,

- We the People
- have the Remedy of The Maine Constitution Article I Section 19
- When you Trespass on our natural inherent and unalienable Rights
- If public servants war against our constitutions that is treason.

 Maine Revised Statutes

* Is not My Law,

- It is the law of the private STATE OF MAINE Corporation

* The Jurisdiction and Venue of the STATE OF MAINE

- is of the territory of the United States or District of Columbia,

* Which is outside of my Jurisdiction and Venue

- as Xj Digger Sui Juris

- who is the authority of the Constitutional Government of the free and independent state of Maine.

* My Law of Government is a strict adherence to the Constitution of the state of Maine

- That all Public servants employed to,

- Swear their Oath to

 District Attorney

* Which State of Maine do you represent?

* Not my Jurisdiction for Maine Revised Statute

- Person, State and United State

- Law for United State Citizen

- Not a Law for the People of Maine

 Maine Revised Statutes

Title 1: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Chapter 1: SOVEREIGNTY AND JURISDICTION

§1. Extent of sovereignty and jurisdiction

The jurisdiction and sovereignty of the State extend to all places within its boundaries, subject only to such rights of concurrent jurisdiction as are granted by the State over places ceded by the State to the United States. This section shall not limit or restrict the jurisdiction of the State over any person or with respect to any subject, within or without its boundaries, which jurisdiction is exercisable by reason of citizenship, residence or for any other reason recognized by law. [1985, c. 802, §1 (AMD).]

SECTION HISTORY

1979, c. 512, §1 (AMD). 1985, c. 802, §1 (AMD).

Title 1: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Chapter 3: RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

§72. Words and phrases

The following rules shall be observed in the construction of statutes relating to words and phrases, unless such construction is inconsistent with the plain meaning of the enactment, the context otherwise requires or definitions otherwise provide. [1969, c. 433, §1 (RPR).]

15. Person. "Person" may include a body corporate.

21. State. "State," used with reference to any organized portion of the United States, may mean a territory or the District of Columbia. [1965, c. 513, §1 (AMD) .]

26-A. United States. "United States" includes territories and the District of Columbia.

[1969, c. 433, §7 (RPR) .]

* NOTE: Jurisdiction and Sovereignty of the State –

- The Constitutional Jurisdiction of the State of Maine as identified is limited by the Charter ordained by the People to have Legislative authority only to defend and benefit the enumerated rights of the people, no other authority was granted.

- The state of Maine was not granted Sovereign rights because the state only was granted limited jurisdiction so therefor has no sovereign powers to make any kind of rule that the legislature may enact.

- It is simply stated that no laws can be made that is repugnant to the constitution.

 Right to travel

* RIGHT TO TRAVEL WITHOUT A STATE LICENSE

"The right of a citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, by horse-drawn carriage, wagon, or automobile, is not a mere privilege which may be permitted or prohibited at will, but a common right which he has under his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Under this constitutional guaranty one may, therefore, under normal conditions, travel at his inclination along the public highways or in public places, and while conducting himself in an orderly and decent manner, neither interfering with nor disturbing another's rights, he will be protected, not only in his person, but in his safe conduct."

-11 American Jurisprudence, Constitutional Law, section 329, page 1135

(Quoting the U.S. Supreme Court)

* 11 Am.Jur. (1st) Constitutional Law, Sect.329, p.1135

- "Personal liberty -- consists of the power of locomotion, of changing situations, of removing one's person to whatever place one's inclination may direct, without imprisonment or restraint unless by due process of law."

* 11 Am Jur section 329.pdf

- "Personal liberty largely consists of the Right of locomotion -- to go where and when one pleases -- only so far restrained as the Rights of others may make it necessary for the welfare of all other citizens. The Right of the Citizen to travel upon the public highways and to transport his property thereon, by horse drawn carriage, wagon, or automobile, is not a mere privilege which may be permitted or prohibited at will, but the common Right which he has under his Right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Under this Constitutional guarantee one may, therefore, under normal conditions, travel at his inclination along the public highways or in public places, and while conducting himself in an orderly and decent manner, neither interfering with nor disturbing another's Rights, he will be protected, not only in his person, but in his safe conduct."

- II Am.Jur. (1st) Constitutional Law, Sect.329, p.1135

* When the judge asks if the parties are ready to proceed,
- we say, "No, not just yet, sir (or madam), I have a few matters I need to clarify before we begin." Then we make the statements we think most appropriate.

* You and the prosecutor have taken oaths of office to support and uphold the Constitution of the United States of America and that of this state. Is that correct?

* Pursuant to your oaths, you are required to abide by those oaths, in the performance of your official duties, especially those before this Honorable Court. Is that correct?

Note: If the judge, or the prosecuting attorney or other state witnesses say "no", then, obviously, they must be disqualified and/or removed from the bench, position or impeached as witnesses, along with their testimonies, for obvious reasons. This answer is evidence that the one who answered "no" will not abide by his oath in the performance of his official duties, therefore, by his own answer, his oath is meaningless to him. He is a traitor and a danger to the American People, and must be removed from power.

The American Citizen is guaranteed due process of law in all court proceedings and actions before government. If a judge were to answer "no" to the above confirming questions, then, it is obvious that he does not intend to uphold due process of law and Rights guaranteed to the Citizens. In such a situation, we would say

"Sir, you are required to uphold due process of law. However, by your answer, it appears that you have either taken an oath, but have no intention of abiding by it, or you have not taken an oath of office, as required by the Constitutions. In either event, your answer demonstrates that you will not uphold due process of law and protect my Constitutionally secured Rights, which are guaranteed to me during these proceedings. Therefore, sir, you are disqualified. Step down."

All those who have taken oaths are required to answer "yes". This answer is consistent with the requirements under the oath, the bond which binds the oath and requirements of the Constitutions. A "yes" answer means that ALL actions taken by the public servant, PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE must be consistent with Constitutional requirements, specific to the Bill of Rights. If the public servant's past actions failed this, and if those actions are used in an action or as evidence against the defendant, then those actions were not taken pursuant to his oath and were done in opposition to Constitutional requirements. Therefore, the public servant perjured his oath, invoked the self-executing Sections 3 and 4 of the 14th Amendment, vacated his office, and forfeited all benefits of that former office, including salary and pensions. All charges must be dismissed, with prejudice.

He must be disqualified from his position, and if he is acting as a witness, he and his testimony must be impeached and all his unconstitutional, unlawful actions and evidence against the defendant must be denied, and the charges dismissed. All present and future actions by the judge and court must be conducted pursuant to the Constitutions, federal and state. In this situation, if you are fully aware of your Rights and the full extent of the implications of the "yes" answer, you will prevail. However, if the judge were to then violate his answer by his statements and actions during the proceedings, we must inform him of his answer and his Constitutional requirements thereto, and of his liability, if he were to fail in his duty to uphold his oath.